Union MSME Minister Urged to promote Khadi in order to make Khadi a global brand

Mumbai, 3 October 2022: Union Minister for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Shri Narayan Rane inaugurated the Khadi Fest – 2022 Exhibition in Mumbai today. The Khadi Fest -2022 has been organized by the Khadi and Village Industries Commission on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti and will be available till 1 November, 2022.

Khadi and Village Industries Commission has been organizing Khadi Fest every year to mark the birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation

Mahatma Gandhi. However, this time the exhibition has been organized after a gap of two years.

After inaugurating the exhibition MSME Minister Shri Narayan Rane said such exhibitions organized KVIC facilitate Khadi and Village Industries Sellers to reach markets. "It is the result of such steps, that in year 2021-22, KVIC registered record exports of more than Rs.257.02 crore", he said.

Shri Rane said "During the freedom struggle Mahatma Gandhi had started the Quit India Movement from Wardha and launched a campaign to make the country and society self-reliant". He added that Our Prime Minister has also taken various initiates to make an Aatma Nirbhar Bharat and we should all support him in his initiative.

Reiterating Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's mantra of 'Employment from Khadi', the MSME Minister appealed to citizens to visit the Khadi Exhibition in Mumbai and buy extensively. He said "Mumbai is the hub of economic activity; if people of Mumbai promote Khadi, Khadi can be established as a global brand".

On this occasion, Shri Manoj Kumar Goel Chairman, Khadi and Village Industries Commission said that KVIC is an organization committed to fulfill Gandhiji's dream of 'Antyodaya' (rise of the last person). "Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi stresses on 'Har Haath Ko Kaam'; through its various schemes and programs, KVIC has promoted self-fmployment in the country", he said.

KVIC registers the highest ever single-day sale of Rs 1.34 crore

at the CP outlet, New Delhi

On 06 October, 2022 New Delhi: This year on 2nd October, CP Outlet of Khadi India has once again set a new record of Khadi sales in a single day. It is noteworthy that the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has appealed on several occasions from national and international forums to buy Khadi and Village Industries products and has mentioned about promoting this sector, which was during the year 2014 at stagnation pace.

After the new Government took over, there has been tremendous growth in sale of Khadi. It is also significant to mention that, since October 2016, the one-day sales at khadi India's flagship outlet in Connaught Place, New Delhi has crossed Rs 1.00 crore marks on several occasions. This has been constantly mentioned by the Prime Minister in his radio talk "Mann ki Baat".

Prime Ministers' message of adopting Khadi and strengthening the poor spinners and weavers financially has reached every nook and corner of the country through the radio broadcast program "Mann Ki Baat", the impact of this was seen in this Gandhi Jayanti i.e. 2nd October 2022 sale.

In a single day, the Khadi India Showroom at Connaught Place, New Delhi marked sale of Rs. 1.34 crores and broke its own previous record of Rs. 1.01 crore set on October 2, 2021. Earlier, the highest single day sale of Khadi stood at Rs 1.29 crore that was recorded on 30th October 2021.

It was for economic, cultural and social reasons and not merely political that Gandhi ji established the Khadi Movement. Taking ahead the same vision of Mahatma, our Prime Minister has endeavoured to promote the Khadi and other village Industries products among masses.

It is also the popularity of our Prime Minister and

The call of help to the poor artisans to light lamps on Diwali is substantiated in reality.

Currently Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's appeal to buy Khadi in "Mann ki Baat" on 25th September, 2022, before 2nd October, has played a great role in achieving this benchmark record sale said Chairman, KVIC.

Commenting on this, KVIC Chairman Shri Manoj Kumar attributed the increase in the sales of Khadi to the continuous backing of the Prime Minister. He said that due to the appeal of Prime Minister, a large number of people, especially the youth, have been inclined to buy Khadi.

KVIC commemorates Gandhi Jayanti Announces discounts on all products

2nd October 2022 Delhi: On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti Chairman, Khadi & Village Industries Commission, Shri Manoj Kumar paid homage to Mahatma Gandhi at Rajghat. He visited Khadi Bhawan India's flagship store in central Delhi's Connaught Placewherein KVIC has announced its much awaited discount from 2nd October onwards on all products (20% on Khadi and 10% on Village Industries products) at all Departmental Sales outlets. On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, the showroom records

KVIC set up Khadi Exhibition at Parliament Annexe, New Delhi from 2nd October to 5th October 2022 which was inaugurated by Speaker of Lok Sabha Shri Om Birla in presence of Cabinet Minister Shri Piyush Goyal and Chairman KVIC. The exhibition also showcased live demonstration of Charkha Spinning.Khadi Exhibition offers products of Khadi and Village Industries for sale.

Sevagram Industrial Area will be modernized in the next 2.5 years

Sevagram Ashram and Wardha district to get a new identity as a tourist hub

On 02 OCT 2022 :Mumbai :Union Minister for MSME Narayan Rane asserted that our nation needs to be self-sufficient to realize the India of Mahatma Gandhiji's dream and there is no alternative to industrialization to achieve this goal. He was addressing the inauguration function of Sevagram Industrial Area Festival organized by Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Rural Industrialization in Wardha, on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi's birth anniversary. Union Minister of State for MSME, Bhanu

Pratap Singh Verma, Secretary B. B. Swain, Joint

Secretary of the Ministry and Development Commissioner Shailesh Kumar Singh also attended the function.

The Union minister said that it was from this Sevagram Ashram of Wardha that Mahatma Gandhi had appealed all to go back to the village, by which he meant the complete development of villages. Sevagram Industrial Zone is created to generate employment through agriculture and village industry. Rane said, the MSME Ministry has formed a committee to modernize this industrial sector and this sector will be modernized in the next 2.5 years.

He said that it is necessary to convince the world about the importance of khadi and a large industrial sector can be created for the same. He said that there is also a huge opportunity for tourism business in the country. Accordingly, more efforts are needed to give a new identity to Sevagram Ashram and Wardha district as a tourist center and the Union government is committed to this. Stating that many large-scale development works are going on in various places in the country, he said that the citizens should come forward and take advantage of this development.

Speaking on the occasion, Union Minister of State for MSME, Bhanu Pratap Singh Verma said that MSME have greatly contributed to the progress of the nation. He said that the MSME Idea fund launched on March 10, 2022 is getting great response and so far 287 ideas and 1196 trademarks have been registered. He informed that a technology center will be set up at Butibori MIDC in Nagpur and local youth will benefit hugely from it.

B.B.Swain, Secretary, MSME informed that the workshop organized today is based on the contribution of village industries in the creation of a self-reliant India. He said that the speakers from various national level organizations will guide this workshop.

Earlier, Shri Rane visited the Sevagram Ashram in Wardha and paid tributes to the statues of Mahatma Gandhi and Kasturba Gandhi by placing floral wreaths. He also started a cleanliness campaign, visited a Covid – 19 vaccination camp and participated in a tree plantation programme.

Beekeeping plays an crucial role in the livelihood of rural communities reiterates Chairman, KVIC

On 8th October 2023, Chairman, KVIC Shri Manoj Kumar visited Banas Dairy of Gujarat, the largest Dairy of Asia, which is gaining momentum in Bee-farming.

Chairman, KVIC interacted with the local beekeepers/farmers of banas areas and distributed 200 bee boxes to trained beekeepers. Speaking on the occasion, Shri Manoj Kumar, Chairman, Khadi and Village Industries Commission said that beekeeping has been practiced in India for many generations. Beekeeping plays an important role in the livelihood of rural communities by income generation, medicinal and edible use of honey and other beehive products, complementing agricultural activities through crosspollination, and contributing immensely to forest and agricultural conservation efforts.

Expressing happiness, he said that in this Banas Dairy of Palanpur itself, on December 10, 2016, Honorable Prime Minister announced Sweet Revolution, the Khadi and Village Industries Commission got the responsibility of taking the campaign forward. Honey Mission is also an important scheme in many employment-oriented activities of Khadi and Village Industries Commission, under which Khadi and Village Industries Commission not only motivates people for honey production but also provides necessary equipment and training.

A four-day event from 20th- 23rd October 2022, at NSIC Okhla, New Delhi

Center of Excellence for Khadi (CoEK) to showcase design directions for khadi at the fourth edition of India Craft Week

On: 19 OCTOBR 2022, Delhi: Khadi is a versatile fabric in terms of textures, weight and fabric content. Prime Minister has emphasised the role of khadi in transforming the nation through fashion for the youth. In our efforts to showcase the versatility of Khadi to a broader audience, the Centre of Excellence for Khadi (CoEK) is showcasing design directions for khadi at the fourth edition of India Craft Week, a four-day event from 20th- 23rd October 2022, at NSIC Okhla, New Delhi, stall D-1.

The Centre of Excellence for Khadi is a centre for experimentation, innovation and design by the Ministry of MSME to support the Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC) in association with the National Institute of Fashion Technology. The Centre is working towards making Khadi fashionable and youthful. The Centre has Delhi as the hub and Bengaluru, Gandhinagar, Kolkata and Shillong as spoke centers.

Khadi Samvaad- The way forward, will showcase four stories as design directions for the Khadi Institutions. The four themes will bring out the diverse characteristics of Khadi in terms of colour palette, prints, weave structures and surface techniques to add value to the hand spun handwoven fabric. Neel Raag explores the natural blue colourant 'Indigo', which resonates with different emotions. The theme Abhrak is inspired by the frescos of the havelis of Shekhawati region of Rajasthan. Srishti, meaning universe, captures the journey of Khadi from white to coloured. Kashish is a mineral-based natural colourant, the beauty of its charcoal hues is complimented with natural hues of turmeric yellow and madder red. It is envisaged that these design directions will enable the Khadi Institutions to create trendy and fashionable textiles to attract the youth. The thematic display will also showcase the explorations carried out by CoEK in home and apparel segments.

The hard work carried out by the artistic people of the Kutch district is ultimate. Chairman, KVIC had interaction with artisans. Every handicraft lover must visit this place who want to explore the
