26 March, 2009

Dear Shri Mishra ji

Please refer to your DO letter no. PMEGP/Policy2008-09 dated 4th March 2009, regarding the reluctance of some District Magistrates to hold the meetings of District Task Force Committee (DTFC) under PMEGP to recommend applications to Banks in view of the operation of the Model Code of Conduct for General Elections 2009.

2. The matter was taken up with the Election Commission (EC) by the Ministry. EC has decided that wherever the DTFCs have been constituted before 2nd March, 2009 such DTFCs may continue to process the applications received upto 2nd March, 2009. However, wherever DTFCs have not been setup, they should not be setup/constituted till elections are over and thereby the processing of applications in such areas may also not be taken up till elections are over. A copy of Election Commission of India letter no. 437/6/27/2009-CC&BE dated 26th March, 2009 is enclosed for further necessary action and to communicate the above decision to all the District Magistrates/Collectors requesting them to hold the meetings of the District Task Force Committee to clear the pending applications with them in accordance with the decision of EC.

3. I request you to please impress upon all the implementing agencies and banks to make more vigorous efforts to achieve the targets under PMEGP for 2008-09. Details of action taken in this regard may please be endorsed to this Ministry.

With regards,

Encl: Copy of EC letter dated 26.03.2009
